

Check out the Market Street Railway Mural

On 15th Street near Church Street (near Market)

It shows “history from the 1920's to the present, and into an imaginary future”

By Mona Caron, it “celebrates the wide range of uses that a vibrant urban public space can and should accommodate, and it contains lots of detailed references to local street art, activism, and various subcultures.”

<http://monacaron.com/murals/market-street-railway-mural>

Detail view of the Market Street Railway mural at 15th & Church

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/urbanists/9592840233/>